What is it?

South Central 4-H District Activity Day is a one-day event in which youth, ages 8-18 participate through speeches, demonstrations, or entertaining performances. It is a thrilling opportunity for young individuals to present their ideas, talents, and perspectives in a supportive and encouraging environment.

Who can participate?

Open to all youth, ages 5-18. They must be enrolled in North Carolina 4-HOnline (<https://v2.4honline.com/#/user/sign-up>) . This event encourages youth to join regardless of their background or experience level. From first-time presenters to seasoned performers, everyone is welcome to take part in this enriching experience.

Benefits of 4-H Presentations and Entertains:

1. Confidence Building: Participants develop confidence in public speaking, a crucial skill for personal and professional growth.
2. Creative Expression: Fosters creativity and originality as youth explore different ways to present their ideas and talents.
3. Communication Skills: Enhances verbal and non-verbal communication skills, laying a foundation for effective interpersonal connections.
4. Leadership Development: Provides a platform for youth to take the lead, fostering leadership qualities and a sense of responsibility.
5. Community Engagement: Encourages active participation in the community and promotes a sense of belonging.

How many categories can a child compete?

Participants can choose from 35 diverse categories, ensuring there's something for everyone. Youth can select the category that best aligns with their interests and talents. This multi-category approach ensures a well-rounded and inclusive experience for all participants.
